Day 4: Global Interaction – One world values and action plan

Workshop Overview: This workshop builds on the concept that we are all one people and part of a single, interconnected global community. It recognizes that we share the same planet, face many of the same challenges, and have a shared responsibility to create a sustainable future for ourselves and future generations. In this workshop we will connect with young persons across religion, ethnic, cultural, economic, political, and social networks.

It also provides opportunities for people to learn from each other, share knowledge and resources, and work together to address common challenges

One Humanity Institute is a social incubator. A global nexus where one can experience both the micro and macro potential of a united humanity.

(OHI) is a global institute without walls represented with a Center located in Oświęcim, Poland, next to Auschwitz.

- Acting as an intergenerational hub, OHI Bakery is the launching point and prototype for the larger campus.
- Will serve as a co-working space, global meeting hub, and peace library alongside a revitalized bakery. It will again serve the community, its local youth, and visitors from around the world.
- Will become a living laboratory for solutions for peaceful co-existence for a more compassionate, equitable and just world.
